REPORT OF PRINCIPAL AND SCHOOL IMPROVEMENT COUNCIL

North Elementary was "All Aboard" for learning this year. Our balanced literacy program focused on reading just right books to support student growth based on individual needs. The 100 Book Challenge program was implemented in kindergarten through fifth grade. The books traveled between home and school daily to help improve reading skills for all of our students. North Elementary was recognized as a National Honor Roll School by the American Reading Company for having our children meet their individual reading targets. We continued our single gender classes for our fourth and fifth grade students. These classes allowed us to teach the same standards to our boys and girls while developing leadership skills and academic confidence. Our math program, MPASS, was utilized to differentiate math instruction based on student needs, and our whole school writing program continued to grow as well.

Our Professional Learning Teams focused on the Common Core State Standards to prepare our teachers and students for full implementation in 2014-2015. These new standards are designed to be rigorous and relevant to the real world so our students will be prepared for their future. The professional development to support our implementation centered on curriculum, instruction and assessment.

Students in each grade level were able to enjoy curriculum-based field trips that enhanced learning and provided an opportunity for them to bond with their classmates and make lasting memories. Our fifth grade students attended Camp Thunderbird and learned about teamwork through group dynamics activities, compass exploration, and canoeing. Our third grade learned about our state history by visiting Fort Sumter and enjoying a horse and carriage ride while in Charleston. The fourth graders annual trip to Myrtle Beach allowed students to sink their toes in the sand. Our second graders enjoyed the Riverbanks Zoo and our first graders went to Cotton Hills Farm. Our kindergarten and exceptional students enjoyed a trip to Aw Shucks and kindergarten also traveled to McLeod's Farm. Our exceptional students enjoyed leading the school-wide recycling initiative and took local field trips to learn about our community.

Our current programs, Professional Learning Teams, and field learning experiences support the learning that is evident though our PASS scores. The 5th grade writing scores increased to 84.5% of our students scoring met or exemplary. Our 3rd graders were at 81.3% met or exemplary in ELA and our 4th graders were at 83.2% met or exemplary in mathematics. Because of our PASS scores, North was recognized as a South Carolina Palmetto Silver Award school in the area of general performance for the 2011-2012 school year.

Our mission at North Elementary is to equip all students to be responsible, hardworking, life-long learners. We are grateful that all in our school community embraced this mission. Our PTA, SIC, volunteers and mentors have provided continued support for our school. We appreciate their dedication to our students and teachers. We are looking forward to this coming school year as North Elementary continues setting a standard of excellence.
